

QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CLAIMS PROCESS

The Receiver continues to analyze records and information that are available to him from Kirkland Young and its related entities to identify potential claims against the Receivership Estate. The work of the Receiver to complete the process of identifying and analyzing claims will take significant time.

When that work is complete, the Receiver will provide notice of all claims recognized by him. If you would like to provide your own notice to the Receiver of your potential claim at this time, instead of relying on the Receiver's notice at a later date in the formal claims objection process, the Receiver has established a process for you to do that.

Question 1. How do I provide information about my claim?

Answer. If you wish to provide information about your claim at this time, you may complete the form provided on this website and mail it to the Receiver at: Mark Raymond, Receiver. One Biscayne Tower, Suite 2100, 2 South Biscayne Blvd. Miami, Florida 33131 (Click here to access a claim form.)

Question 2. What information does the form require me to provide?

Answer. The form requires that you provide basic information such as your name and contact information, a description of your claim and documents to support your claim.

Question 3. Is there a deadline for filing the claim notification form?

Answer. At this time, there is no requirement that you provide information about your claim by a fixed deadline. However, the Receiver plans to ask the Court for permission to make a distribution of money by November 12, 2010. The Receiver will provide at least 30 days advance notice of any deadline for filing claims that he or the Court establishes in the future. The notice will be published on this website and may also be communicated in other ways.

Question 4. What if I do not file this form? Will the Receiver notify me later that I may have the right to file a claim?

Answer. The Receiver, at the appropriate time, will file a report with the Court and notify claimants as to the list of claims against the Receivership Estate that are recognized by him based on Kirkland Young's records and other information received by the Receiver. At that time, a process will be established that will allow persons to object if they are not satisfied with the amount or characterization of their claim as recognized by the Receiver.

If you have additional questions about the claims process, please e-mail the Receiver at receiver@kirklandreceiver.com.
